Following completion of the capital raising initiative, the Company holds a proforma cash balance of approximately $5,560,000, alongside a $3,000,000 receivables-based debt facility with ScotPac (announced 21 January 2026).

The strengthened balance sheet positions Algorae to capitalise on the commercial and scientific momentum generated over recent months. The Company looks forward to providing further updates as these initiatives progress.
