This statement is current as at 29 September 2016 and has been approved by the Board.

This statement explains how Strandline addresses the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations – 3rd Edition (“ASX Principles or Recommendations”).

In addition to the information contained in this statement, the Company’s website www.strandline.com.au has a dedicated corporate governance section which includes copies of key corporate governance policies adopted by the Company.

Where Strandline’s corporate governance practices do not correlate with the ASX Principles and Recommendations, it is because the Board does not consider it practical to implement those recommendations due to the size and stage of development of Strandline’s operations and the Board’s reasoning for any departure is explained. As the Company’s activities develop in size, nature and scope the implementation of additional corporate governance structures will be given further consideration.

Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

1.1 A listed entity should disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management

The primary responsibility of the Board is to represent and advance shareholders’ interests and to protect the interests of all stakeholders. To fulfill this role the Board is responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company including its strategic direction, establishing goals for management and monitoring the achievement of these goals.

The responsibilities of the Board include:

- protection and enhancement of shareholder value;
- formulation, review and approval of the objectives and strategic direction of the Company;

- the review and performance and remuneration of Executive Directors and key staff;
- the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards; and
- evaluating and, where appropriate, adopting with or without modification, the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The Board has established functions that are reserved for the Board, as separate from those functions discharged by the Managing Director and senior executives, and they are summarised in the Company’s Board Charter which is available on the Company’s website www.strandline.com.au/corporategovernance

1.2 A listed entity should carry out appropriate checks of board candidates and provide information to shareholders that is material to their candidacy

The Board oversees arrangements for the effective appointment of new Directors. When considering the appointment of a new Director, the Board may engage the services of an executive recruitment firm to assist identify suitable candidates to be shortlisted for consideration for appointment to the Board and to carry out appropriate reference checks before the Board makes an offer to a preferred candidate.

Newly appointed directors must stand for reappointment at the next subsequent AGM. The Notice of Meeting for the AGM provides shareholders with information about each Director standing for election or re-election including details of relevant skills and experience.

1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment

New Directors consent to act as a director and receive a formal letter of appointment which sets out duties and responsibilities, rights, and remuneration entitlements.

Each Executive is employed under a Service Agreement which sets out the terms on which the Executive is employed including details of the Executive's duties and responsibilities, rights, and remuneration entitlements. The Service Agreement also sets out the circumstances in which the employment of the Executive may be terminated by either the Company or the Executive, including details of the notice periods required to be given by either party, or the amounts payable to the Executive as a consequence of the termination by the Company of the Executive's employment.

1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board

Strandline's Company Secretary also fulfils the Chief Financial Officer's role in addition to company secretarial duties. As a result, the formal reporting line of the Chief Financial Officer is to the Managing Director but for any matter relevant to the company secretarial duties or conduct of the Board, the Company Secretary has a direct reporting line and is accountable to the Chair of the Board.

1.5 A listed entity should have a policy concerning diversity and disclose that policy together with measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and its progress towards achieving those objectives

The Company's policy regarding equal employment opportunity and diversity is set out on the Company's website www.strandline.com.au/corporategovernance

The Company's Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity Policy does not include measurable objectives as the Board believes that the Company will not be able to successfully meet these given the size and stage of development of the Company.

Given the size of the Company the Directors do not consider it appropriate to set measurable objectives in relation to diversity. Notwithstanding this the Company strives to provide the best possible opportunities for current and prospective employees of all backgrounds in such a manner that best adds to overall shareholder value and which reflects the values, principles and spirit of the Company's Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity Policy.

For the 2016 financial year, the Company had a total of 2 women employees out of a total of 7 employees and contractors, however, the Company had no women in senior executive positions or women on the Board.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to add value

Given the Company's size and the complexity of its affairs, it is not considered necessary to have a separate Nomination Committee. The Board as a whole will identify candidates and assess their skills in deciding whether an individual has the potential to add value to the Company. The Board may also seek independent advice to assist with the identification process.

In selecting and appointing new Directors the Board undertakes a proper assessment of prospective Directors which includes, but is not limited to, their relevant experience and achievements, compatibility with other Board members, credibility within the Company's scope of activities, and intellectual and physical ability to undertake Board duties and responsibilities.

2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership

For the 2016 financial year the Board did not have a skill matrix setting out the skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is seeking to achieve in its membership. The Board is satisfied that it has an appropriate mix of skills for strategic decision-making and effective oversight in relation to the Company's mineral sands exploration and development activities in Australia and in Tanzania. The skills, experience and expertise of each director is set out in the Directors' Report in the Annual Report.

2.3 A listed entity should disclose whether its Directors are independent

Strandline considers a Director to be independent where they are free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interest of the entity and its security holders generally.

The Board has adopted a definition of independence based on that set out in Recommendation 2.3 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations. The Board will review the independence of each Director in light of interests disclosed to the Board from time to time.

ASX announcements, Company Reports and presentations are uploaded to the website following release to the ASX.

6.2 A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors

The Company respects the rights of its shareholders and stakeholders and seeks to facilitate the effective exercise of those rights by promoting effective proactive communication and encouraging shareholder participation at annual general meetings. Shareholder feedback through our website and third party sites provide the opportunity to address questions to the company. Appropriate measures are also taken to keep shareholders informed about the Company's activities and to listen to issues or concerns raised by shareholders. The Company has established a Shareholder Communications Policy which is available on Strandline's website at www.strandline.com.au/corporategovernance

Fundamental to Strandline's investor relations program is the management of its continuous disclosure obligations which facilitates all shareholders having access to important company information. Shareholders have the option of electing to receive all shareholder communications by e-mail. Strandline provides a printed copy of the Annual Report to only those shareholders who have specifically elected to receive a printed copy.

7.1 A listed entity should establish an appropriately structured risk management committee for the oversight of material business risks

The Board has not set up a separate risk management committee and approaches risk on a full Board basis. The Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing and approving policies for the management and oversight of material business risks, internal compliance and internal controls. The Company has in place a system of risk management that identifies and categorises and manages material business risks faced by the Company.

The Board has delegated responsibility for establishing and maintaining effective management strategies for material business risks to the Managing Director. The Board requires that the Managing Director reports regularly as to the effectiveness of the Group's risk management systems.

The Board recognises that no cost effective internal control system will preclude all errors and irregularities. The Board reviews the business and financial risk management systems and internal control systems implemented by management to obtain reasonable assurance that the entity's assets are safeguarded and that the reliability and integrity of its financial information is maintained.

7.2 The Board or a Committee of the Board should review the company's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound

A formal annual review of the Company's risk management framework was not undertaken during the year. The Board and senior management discuss on an ongoing informal basis the risks facing the company, acceptable levels of risk and the measures for managing risks.

7.3 A listed entity should disclose the structure and role of its internal audit function

The Company does not have an internal audit function due to its size and stage of development of Strandline's operations. The Board believes that the external financial audits and the Board's and management regular reviews of risk management and internal control processes are sufficient for a company of this size.
