Director Resignation

Strandline Resources Limited (ASX: STA) advises that Richard Hill has resigned as a Non-executive Director with effect from 1 November 2017.

Strandline Chairman Didier Murcia thanks Mr Hill for the key role he had played in establishing the Company and its strong asset base.

“Richard was instrumental in the formation of Strandline and its acquisition of a portfolio of Tanzanian mineral sands project assets,” Mr Murcia said.

“He was the inaugural Managing Director of Strandline and oversaw the acquisition of Jacana Resources (Tanzania) in 2015 to create what is now a highly valuable pipeline of minerals sands projects.”

“On behalf of the directors, I would like to thank Richard for his leadership and support and wish him every success in his future endeavours.”

About Strandline

Strandline Resources Limited (ASX: STA) is an emerging heavy mineral sands (HMS) developer with a growing portfolio of 100%-owned development assets located in Western Australia and within the world's major zircon and titanium producing corridor in South East Africa. Strandline's strategy is to develop and operate quality, high margin, expandable mining assets with market differentiation and global relevance.

Strandline's project portfolio comprises development optionality, geographic diversity and scalability. This includes two zircon-rich, 'development ready' projects, the Fungoni Project in Tanzania and the large Coburn Project in Western Australia, as well as a series of titanium dominated exploration targets spread along 350km of highly prospective Tanzanian coastline, including the advanced Tanga South Project and Bagamoyo Project.

The Company's focus is to continue its aggressive exploration and development strategy and execute its multi-tiered and staged growth strategy to maximise shareholder value.
